CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH

CALGARY, ALBERTA

FOR YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1908

COMPILED BY DIRECTION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, 1908

Introduction by the Pastor

It is a little more than a year since Central Church was set apart by the unanimous vote of the Alberta Conference for special mission work. This action of the Conference makes a continuous pastorate possible, thus giving an opportunity to the present pastor to more fully complete and extend the work begun under his ministry five years ago.

We are now commencing the sixth year of our work in Calgary. During the past five years Central Church has grown from a comparatively small work to one of the largest charges in Canada. It has become the mother of churches in Calgary, besides extending its help and influence to other needy causes throughout the Province.

The past year has been the most successful in the church's history. The congregations have been limited only by the capacity of the church. The membership has passed the 1,200 mark. The Sabbath school has an enrolment of over 800. The Epworth League, in its Senior and Junior departments, is in a most flourishing condition. The Young Men's Club has had the best year in its history. The "Men's Own" on Sunday afternoons has an attendance during the winter season sometimes reaching 400 men. The Deaconess work, with its visitation of the sick and poor, with its mother's meetings, and wise distribution of food and clothing, has been a great boon to scores of families. Miss Thompson, our Deaconess, is making her influence felt throughout the entire city.

The missionary spirit was never so dominant in our congregation as today. The laymen and the business men generally, are showing an interest that means much for the extension of the work in the city and Province. The total missionary givings of our church this year will reach $5,000; while the work of the "Young Men's Volunteer Missionary Club," in supporting a missionary at Athabasca Landing, has afforded a striking object-lesson of what a dozen young men can do in obeying Christianity's "marching orders."

We cannot speak too highly of the women's organizations of the church: The Mission Band, the Woman's Missionary Society, the Ladies' Aid, the Women's Bible Class, the Young Ladies' Bible Class in our Sunday School. Truly, the women that "publish the good tidings" are a host.

It is an encouraging fact that our class-meetings and prayer meetings were never better than at present. Three new classes have been started during the year; while more of our people are availing themselves of these means of grace than ever before.

The social character of our work through the Young Men's Club and Deaconess Organization, has brought our church in closer relation to the more practical needs of the people. The church's open door, every day of the year, the comfortable rooms, the bright and brotherly meetings, have drawn hundreds of the newly-arrived strangers and immigrants within its influences. Counsel and direction are given by the Pastor and his assistant to several hundred every month. Who can measure the results of this work? The work has been carried on in no sectarian spirit. The people of our congregation have been generous and loyal. But for this we could not have carried on so great a work. No minister ever worked with a kinder or more responsive people. The preaching of the Cross has been to the front in all this work. The evangelistic note is sounded in every service and we rejoice that many have found their way into light and liberty.

We take this opportunity of thanking all those who in any way, by word or thought or money or prayer have contributed to the work. We also place on record our appreciation of the splendid work done by our Deaconess, Miss Thompson, and by our assistant pastor, Rev. Robert Pearson, B.A.

With confidence in God and faith in the people, we take up the work of another year. We are human, and therefore can and do make mistakes. Will you bear with us, pray for us, and stand by us, for the work's sake and for Christ's sake. And may Grace, Mercy and Peace abide with you and yours through all the days of this conference year.

G. W. KERBY.

The mission spirit was never so dominant in our congregation as today. The laymen and the business men generally are showing an interest that means much for the extension of the work in the city and Province. The total missionary earnings of our church this year will reach $2,000, while the work of the Young Men's Voluntary Missionary Club, in supporting a missionary of Abilene, Kansas, has effected a striking opportunity of placing a dozen young men in obeying Christ's "reaching orders."

We cannot speak too highly of the women's organizations of the church. The Mission Band, the Women's Missionary Society, the Ladies' Aid, the Women's Bible Class, the Young Ladies' Class in our Sunday School truly, the women that "publish the good things" are a host. It is an encouraging fact that our class-meetings and prayer meetings were never better than at present. Three new classes have been started during the year, while more of our people are availing themselves of these means of grace than ever before.

Report of Sunday School

The hope of any church is the Sunday School, and during the past year, this important branch has received careful attention, and efficient work has been accomplished by the large staff of workers under the guidance of the Superintendent, Dr. A. M. Scott.

A teacher's class for the study of the lesson has been held regularly during the year, meeting every Wednesday evening after prayer meeting, for forty-five minutes. This has been well attended and has proved of great assistance, and a source of spiritual uplift to the teachers, giving rise to deeper interest in the spiritual welfare of all the scholars. Some fifty or more have joined the church during the year, and large numbers from the Sunday school partake of the sacrament at the four o'clock communion service each quarter.

Average weekly attendance for the year.....	405
Total money raised.....	$ 1,053.53
Of which there was distributed for Missionary and philanthropic purposes.....	367.15

During the year some 500 volumes were added to the Library, and there are now 800 volumes available for the use of the Scholars, of whom 306 are availing themselves of this privilege. Much is due to the energy and patient work of the Librarian, Mr. Morley, J. Whittleton, and his assistants.

The Primary Department has done splendidly under difficulties, being cramped for room. The coming year finds them occupying the Gymnasium, which allows more scope for expansion. This Department is in charge of Mrs. F. G. Marwood, who is an enthusiast in Primary matters. She has able assistants, numbering about a score. The average attendance in this department during the year was 93. The following is a list of officers and teachers for the past year:

The League has been trying to fulfil its mission of looking up and lifting up for Christ and the Church. We have been trying by God's help to do our duty as we see it as best we can, not for the praises of men, but for what we in our humble judgment consider to be in the best interests of and for God's Kingdom. Our sick and visiting Committee has been doing a gracious work under the supervision of Miss Eyres, and sunshine has been carried to many sick rooms. Our social committee, under the care of Miss Jarrett has given the League one of the best years socially it has ever enjoyed. Like words of well-earned commendation must be used in referring to our Missionary and Literary Committees under the able direction of Misses M. E. Howson and E. Fraser respectively. Of the success of the Christian Endeavor Department under the leadership of Mr. W. B. Tait, it suffices to say that our 1st Vice President has so won the hearts of the members that we all think of him as our dear brother Tait.

Concerning the Junior Department, (whose report appears elsewhere) we would note the choice of Superintendents for that Department has been such a wise one that the re-election of those officers for another term has been unanimously endorsed by both Senior and Junior Departments. We wish Misses Poulton and Steinbrecker God-speed in their work for the coming year.

We are making a special effort to raise the sum of $500 for missions during the coming year. $400 has already been subscribed and we expect to realize our desire along this line.

Deaconess' Work

The life of a Christian is to be preeminently a life of service, and in this life of service God calls upon us for something more than our human best. Through Him we are to become "partakers of the Divine nature," and, linked to the Divine, we can love humanity as He loved it, and serve as He taught us how. Jesus said to one candidate for discipleship, "I will show him"—not what positions of honor and trust may be his, nor what wealth he may accumulate but—"I will show him how great things he must suffer for My name's sake."

But does he demand less of the twentieth century than of the first? If not called to suffer we are still called to serve. The cry of our brother's need is pitiful now as then. We hear it in the plaintive voices of neglected childhood; we see it in the hollow eyes and pleading faces that haunt our city streets. But unfortunately worse than the half starved bodies of our poor is the starved and darkened souls.

"Their blood will I require at thy hand," God says to every one to whom He has entrusted wealth, talent, time or opportunity, unless in some way it be devoted to the uplifting of the race.

During the past few months we organized mothers' meetings, for the mothers in our poor homes. These meetings were held on Friday afternoon of each week. The first hour was spent in devotional services, bright cheery singing, a short enthusiastic bible talk, followed by light refreshments, which gave the opportunity for a quiet helpful talk to the sometimes tried and discouraged mother. We feel compensated and convinced that these meetings are doing a great deal of good when such testimonials as the following come from our mothers:—"It is not that you take away all our troubles, but just to know that you are my friend, makes it easier to bear." "These meetings are the brightest spots in my life. I look forward to going each week." "You said, we should have a place for everything and everything in its place, I am trying to carry out that suggestion in my home, and to be bright and happy and make my husband feel that after all life is worth while."

At the close of the meeting we usually found our way to our "departmental store," when great pains were taken to suit the taste and meet the requirements of each individual. Our stock of summer wear is low and if our friends could send us summer suits, shirt waists, etc., they would be much appreciated.

Through the generosity of our Sunday School and friends we were enabled to bring "Good Cheer" to about twenty-five families at Christmas time and to provide gifts for children in five homes where they had no Christmas a year ago and no expectation of one this past Christmas, as of the heads of these homes, two were ill and three unemployed. Another family who had practically nothing was supplied with beds and bedding, clothing, stove, etc. And yet another, the mother and two children being sick in the hospital, the three smaller children were nursed and cared for until such time as the mother was in a condition to resume her responsibilities again. When visited in the hospital, she said, "I cannot understand why you are doing so much for us, when we are strangers to you." Some one has said, "The greatest thing a man can do for his Heavenly Father is to be kind to some of the Father's other children." Surely these are some of "the Father's other children."

Space will not permit to tell of the cooking, sewing, nursing, sweeping, etc., but we often feel that soap, water and a scrubbing brush are more important factors in the hands of a Christian than a Bible and prayer book.

Thanking the many friends of the Central Methodist Church for their interest, help, sympathy and prayers, and trusting you will continue to help in this great work, We are,

Yours in the work,

MAUD AGNES THOMPSON,

Deaconess.

Young Men's Club

The Young Men's Club, that institution which is such an important feature of the work of the Central Methodist Church, by reason of which the governing bodies saw fit to set apart Central Church as an institutional church to do special missionary work in the heart of the growing metropolis of the west, has had the best year of its existence.

During the summer months the Club used its efforts towards furthering a cleaner, stronger manhood by encouraging outdoor sports and recreations. The Club had tennis courts for the members, was represented on the baseball field, and in August a very successful athletic meet was put on by the club. The summer camp at Banff was another interesting feature of the outdoor life of the Club.

Indoor work was inaugurated in October upon the arrival of the Club's new secretary, Mr. L. A. Buckley. As the result of an active membership campaign, the club was put in fine financial standing. Gymnasium work was taken up. The Library of over 600 volumes was again opened. The Mock Parliament was organized as it never was before. Anyone who has attended any of these meetings need not be told of the great interest as well as educational benefit that flowed from these sessions. The Mock Trial presented by club members as one of the concluding features of the indoor season was an exemplification of the development along these lines.

The total membership in good standing at the end of the club year was 301, divided as follows:

Someone may ask, what good is the club? What does the club do besides furnishing clean amusements and educational advantages to its members?

Constantly is advantage being taken of the club's information bureau, its helpfulness in assisting the deserving unemployed to situations, in locating a pleasant and suitable boarding house for the newcomer, in giving friendly advice and assistance. Only from actual experience can one readily comprehend the many and different uses to which the club and its officers are put.

Again the spiritual side of the manhood of the City is not overlooked. The Young Men's Club class meeting is held every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, by means of which one's christian faith is strengthened and one's spiritual outlook broadened by mutual consultation, experience and help. And what has developed into one of the most characteristic features of the whole club's work has been the gathering of the men on Sunday afternoons in the "Men's Own" meetings where men of all nationalities and creeds are attracted by the bright character of the meeting, where good music is offered them by the orchestra under Mr. Howells and other kind friends from Sunday to Sunday, and a live practical address given by some live practical speaker. On almost every Sunday during the winter it has become the rule that the seating capacity has been overtaxed. These meetings are known throughout the whole of Canada and even abroad. Their cosmopolitan nature is most remarkable and their good influence incalculable.

On the whole the club has had a very successful year. Misfortune befell the club and its general secretary, when he was injured and obliged to give up his work and return to his home, but there is no denying that the work of the Y.M.C. has been a potent influence in the life of this church, this city and of this whole western country. The influence it has generated no one can estimate, the power it is developing is something which would cause one to pause before endeavoring even to approximate the benefit it is to the young life of this Last Great West. It is beyond human reckoning. And yet, there is much to do. A great work yet lies before. And yet no matter how great it may be, the Young Men's Club will not hesitate to do its share towards solving the "Young Man" problem of this country.

Ladies' Aid Society

The Ladies' Aid Society of Central Church is a live organization of which every woman in the congregation could well be a member. During the year the membership roll totalled 200, each of whom contributed systematically each month from twenty-five cents to One Dollar towards the reduction of the Church debt. By diligent work the Ladies have reduced the balance unpaid on their subscription of $2,000 towards the Building Fund to only $400. This they expect to pay in full before December next.

While they have been working for the home church, they have not forgotten the mission churches and during the past year have contributed $200 towards furnishing the Parsonage of Trinity church, East Calgary.

Our society is also a social organization, exhibiting the friendly spirit amongst its members. New-comers can find no better means of becoming acquainted with the ladies of the congregation than by attending the monthly meetings of the Society and taking an interest in its work.

The large expense is explained by the fact that during the year the Society has catered for the luncheons held by the Canadian Club of Calgary, serving from 100 to 200 at each luncheon, and the disbursements in connection therewith are included under this item, the ladies giving their time and work. A large number of the younger ladies has ably assisted in this work to whom the Society wishes to express its thanks.

In addition to this the society raised over $200.00 for the furnishing of the parsonage at Saddle Lake, and a considerable donation toward the hospital at Pakan.

Young Men's Volunteer Missionary Club

What could be more appropriate than that the Central Methodist Church, itself set apart under the provisions of General Conference as a special missionary institution, should be directly represented by a missionary at one of the outposts of the Province?

Inspired by the Missionary Anniversary services of April, 1907, a band of young men of the Church organized themselves into the above Club, with the purpose of becoming personally and directly responsible for the support of a missionary at some strategic point in the Province. Consultation with the Superintendent of Missions, Rev. T. C. Buchanan, resulted in the selection of Athabasca Landing, the gateway to the great Peace River country, as the point, and of Rev. C. F. Hopkins, with the approval of Conference, as the man for the work. The choice of both location and man has been amply justified. On two vacant lots owned by the church, Rev. Mr. Hopkins, with the assistance of a fellow-brother in the work, Rev. Jas. Coulter, has erected a substantial two-storey combination church and club-rooms, with reading and writing rooms, worth over $3,000, without any expense for labor. During the year the Y. M. V. M. Club has contributed $900 as the salary of the missionary besides giving assistance towards financing the cost of the building.

The work of this club has excited interest and inspired a spirit of emulation throughout the connection.

MR. TURNER, and the OFFICERS.

Junior Epworth League

In January, 1907, the Junior League was re-organized. At the first meeting only seven members were present, but since that time the membership has increased to sixty-nine with an average attendance of twenty-eight.

The League meets each Sunday morning at ten o'clock. The first Sunday of each month is "Roll Call" and Consecration Service. Nine members have been present at every one of these services and eleven others have missed only one service.

Last November the League decided to take up a Special Collection every Sunday, to be given to the poor of the city at Christmastime. $10.00 was collected and handed over to Miss Thompson, our Deaconess, towards buying food and clothing for those in need.

In January it was decided to give all collections to help Miss Thompson in her work. Some $7 on hand at that time was handed over to her. On April 14th last the League gave a Magic Lantern Entertainment, the proceeds of which, $17.05. were given to Miss Thompson. In January, a floral committee was formed who have since sent twelve bouquets to sick children.

Any boy may join.

Mission Band

At the request of the Woman's Missionary Society, Misses Brock and Dilworth undertook the re-organization of the Mission Band. At first they found it hard work to get the children together again. Finally, an "At Home" was given in order to bring the children out. Interest in missionary work among the children was revived and re-organization completed. Six successful meetings were held during the year. The children did splendid work and took a keen interest in the Mission Band. The Band has been named "The Sunbeams." The children raised $10.60 for Missions and fifty members are now enrolled.

Christian Stewards

At a meeting held at the Parsonage on June 9th, 1907, twenty-eight members of the congregation organized themselves into a Society to be called "The Christian Stewards," for the purpose of studying, practising and extending systematic giving to God's work. The officers elected were:

President: MR. A. A. McLATCHIE
Vice President: MR. A. W. BAKER
Secretary-Treasurer: DR. W. A. LINCOLN
Executive Committee: MISS EDITH M. POULTON, MRS. ALICE PALMER AND MISS N. E. MILFORD.

The objects of the Society were brought to the attention of the Epworth League, and an invitation given to others to join the society. The subject was also taken up at the congregational prayer service and the invitation repeated, with the result that the membership has increased to 33.

Local Preachers and Class Leaders

This organization was formed over one year ago at the Parsonage, with John E. Irvine as president and T. W. Quayle as Secretary. The association has met two or three times during the year for conferences and consultation and has sent out pulpit supplies from time to time to various points in the city and district. Members of the association have been supplying the work with preaching service at Crescent Heights for some time. We hope to have more frequent meetings during the present year. There are some twenty members in the association.

Choir

For the fourteenth year the Choir has been under the direction of Mr. John J. Young as Choirmaster and Organist. Both leader and members have been very faithful in attendance and of material assistance in the Church's services. Esprit de corps has been encouraged and developed by social gatherings during the winter months at the homes of the leader and other members. Several musical concerts of a high quality have been given during the year under the auspices of the Choir. The Choir united with the choirs of a number of other city churches in forming the chorus for the Musical Festival given under the direction of Sir Frederick Bridge.

The soloists during the year have been:

Soprano: MISS ADRA LUTON, MISS E. WHITTLETON, MISS MARGARET MUNRO, B.A.

Contralto: MRS. GEO. A. CROOKS

Tenor: MR. J. W. QUINNEY

Bass: MR. J. D. McFARLAND.

Mr. Quinney has acted as Librarian of the Choir during the year.

This year, as in previous years, Mr. Young gave of his time and services gratuitously. The Official Board made the usual appropriation of $400 to him to cover necessary disbursements for music and other expenses. With the close of the church year Mr. Young retired, the occasion being marked by gifts from both the choir and the congregation in recognition of his long and faithful services.
